Delegates are invited to a one-day crash course in 3D Printing, run by FabLab Cardiff, located in Cardiff Metropolitan University's School of Art and Design. When booking for the main meeting, please select “3D printing workshop”. Costs will depend on numbers - the more delegates, the less expensive it becomes. The total cost is £300, so for example, four delegates would pay £75 each. We may have to limit numbers if there is sufficient demand so please book early. There is no fee for registering interest at this stage - we will confirm the actual cost a month before the event.

For more details, please visit the Fablab web site :
